

4.6	Name	Date	Period
The organization of the FED	Analyze the Federal reserve system's organization and purpose. The _____ was created by _____ in 1913 as the central _____ system of _____. Its major purpose was to end the _____ financial _____ that had occurred the _____ 100 years. They were _____ to get around the business _____ now they try to reduce or _____ it. It is a _____, power spread _____. The FED is made up of a Board of _____ who are assisted by the Federal _____ Council, the Federal _____ Market Committee, 12 _____ Reserve district _____ and _____ branch banks, and about _____ members The board of _____ - directs the operation of the _____. It supervises the _____ Federal Reserve _____ banks and regulates certain _____ of Member banks. There are 7 full time _____ who are appointed by the _____. Each member serves for 14 _____. The terms are _____ so that an _____ occurs every 2 years. Their _____ are not subject to _____ by anyone. Their length of _____, manner of selection, and _____ in working frees members from political _____. Assists the board of _____. It is made up of 12 _____ elected by the directors of each Federal Reserve _____ bank. The FAC meets as least _____ (4 times a year) to report the general _____ conditions of the _____. 12 members that meets 8 _____ a year to decide the course of _____ the FED should take to control the _____ supply. It is the FOMC's action that have a _____ effect throughout the _____ world. The nation is divided into 12 _____ banks. They are structured as a _____ owned by member banks. These 12 banks are _____ for the flow of money through the _____
Answer the learning target			